Babur The Tiger
Babur (born Zahir-ud-din Muhammad; February 14, 1483/December 26, 1530) was the founder of the Mughal Empire in India. His descendants, the Mughal emperors, built a long-lasting empire that covered much of the subcontinent until 1868, and that continues to shape the culture of India to this day. Babur himself was of noble blood; on his father's side, he was a Timurid, a Persianized Turk descended from Timur the Lame, and on his mother's side he was a descendant of Genghis Khan .

Babur wished to be buried under the open sky so his grave is uncovered, surrounded by a simple marble screen. The headstone says it was erected for the light-garden of the God-forgiven angel king whose rest is in the garden of Heaven!l. Given the near-miraculous resurrection of the grounds, it's an easy poetic sentiment to agree with.
